GO FROM HOME TO HEAR THE NEWS.

In the Financial Age, one of the New York stock journals, in its issue of June 14th, appears the following in that part of the edition devoted to municipal bonds:

"Alexandria, Va.—The question of issuing $45,000 of electric light and waterworks extension bonds is reported under consideration."

This will be news to Alexandrians, and since its publication inquiries have been received from bankers and brokers but for obvious reasons no replies were made. On July 1 next $44,100 of bonds of the issue of 1879 will mature, 51 bonds of $100 each, 18 bonds of $500 each and 30 bonds of $1,000 each. Practically all of these bonds, certainly ninety-five per cent of them stand in the names of the original owners, and the thirty years that have elapsed since their issue in 1879 has left only the heirs, it was not easy to effect an exchange, as the heirs in some cases could not be located, and the others desired the payment. When the appropriation bill was reported last month it was known that this $44,100 would have to be provided for, and at the same time not interfere with the annual expenditures and some street and sewer work. Nineteen thousand and one hundred dollars was appropriated for redemption, leaving $25,000 to be paid for from the proceeds of sale of the bonds of 1908. The city auditor effected an arrangement with the cashier of the First National Bank as to the payment of the $44,100 by the check of the bank, the city to redeem the amount by warrant, subsequently. The arrangement was submitted to, and fully endorsed by the finance committee, as time for examination would be provided for, and some exchanges made of the 1879 for the 1908 issue. The auditor will request the banks to present the 1879 bonds with July coupons attached to the First National Bank for redemptions where they will be paid.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

A meeting of the republicans of the city was held last night at Armory Hall. The attendance was slim.

T. Armstead Egghorn, city chairman, presided, and Charles W. Hancock was secretary pro tem.

Resolutions were adopted indorsing the administrations of President Taft and State Chairman O. Bascom Slomp. The following delegates were selected to attend the state convention at Newport News July 28:

Park Agnew, J. L. Crupper, J. A. Egghorn, W. H. P. Kelly, Donald Aitchison, J. Frank Carlin, Harry B. Quinn, William Luckett, W. P. Graves, and Charles W. Hancock.

Each delegate will have the power of selecting his own alternate, and at the convention they will be entitled to one-half a vote each.

It was agreed that the county be called upon to name a candidate for the House of Delegates at a subsequent meeting.

CAPT. SWEENEY RESIGNS.

Capt. W. H. Sweeney, who for several years has been a member of the Board of Aldermen from the Fourth ward, has tendered his resignation to take effect at once and the resignation was received this morning by President J. R. N. Curtin, of the Board of Aldermen. Capt. Sweeney has been appointed superintendent of schools of this city, and his term will begin on the 1st proximo. Capt. Sweeney has served efficiently in the Board of Aldermen and is at present chairman of the finance committee and a member of the committee on light. Already the question of Capt. Sweeney's successor in the Board of Aldermen is being discussed. Mr. James Fitzgerald is mentioned and many friends of Capt. Albert Bryan a former councilman and chairman of the finance committee would like to see him again a city father. Mr. Gardner L. Boothe's name has also been mentioned in connection with the position.

A PROGRESSIVE SHOW.

San Brothers' Greater Progressive Shows which will exhibit here July 2, present features that are seldom offered by traveling aggregations. There is a diversity of wild animals, elephants, trick horses, clowns, equestrians, acrobats etc. There are over fifty male and female artists, all gorgeously costumed, comprising acrobatic "thrillers," acrobatic and gymnastic displays, bicycle exploits, pantomimic oddities, marvelous educated animals, vaudeville specialties, and spectacular novelty ideas. Then there are "Nero" and "Hero," the man-eating lions, the troupe of military and comedy elephants, the dancing camels, Prince Tyn, the smallest horse on earth, the baby camel "Macon" and its mother and Princess Hula, the only genuine Hindoo serpent hypnotist with a caravan of huge performing serpents.

THE HOT WAVE.

It appears that few cities in the United States suffered more from heat than Alexandria yesterday. According to figures, the mercury was with one exception higher here than anywhere else in the country. It stood at 98° in Washington, and was, of course, near that point in Alexandria. Directly or indirectly resulting from the terrific heat of the last six days, 70 babies have died in Washington. While the heat has in some cases caused sickness in Alexandria, it has not increased the death rate. Later yesterday evening cooling breezes brought some relief, and the heat last night was by no means as intense as that of the previous nights.

PARTY ARRIVES SAFE.

Admiral Olaus and party, who, as stated two weeks ago, had left for his old home in Germany, arrived safe, as stated in a telegram received by Mr. Ed Wildt yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Special for Saturday Only, Queen Quality Ladies' Russian Calf Pumps $3.50; custom grade for $1.98. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King Street.

GROWING BUSINESS.

It affords the people interested in the city's welfare a great deal of pleasure to speak of or hear of the success of a business enterprise in their midst. It would not be extravagant to say that there is hardly one which among the successful houses in this city exceeds Hamilton & Co., cigar manufacturers. Beginning business in a co-operative way on account of limited funds, under the old Marshall House, by close attention to business and virtue of the goods furnished the people the firm has grown in favor and its cigars have become world wide. The business is now located in a factory owned by themselves and the general proprietors, Messrs. F. M. Hamilton, A. H. Ochler and J. P. Steiner, are numbered among Alexandria's most prominent business men. In all the years of their existence in a business way they have never been compelled to change their popular brands of cigars. They employ skilled workmen, the shop is clean in every particular, and the wages are as high as paid anywhere in the country.

AMUSEMENTS.

One of the best programmes ever furnished the amusement lovers of this city will be that at the Alexandria Amusement Company tonight. Three thousand feet of pictures will be shown, and the following are among the pictures: The Curfew Bell, A Visit to the London Zoological Gardens, Bottled Up, Mrs. Jones Has a Card Party and Too Stout. All who witnessed the performance at the Opera House last night considered it an exceedingly good show. The singing by Miss Mabel Johnson seemed to please and she was given a hearty welcome. Barton and English, in songs and dances made a desired hit. Guy and Elsie Johnson, in that screaming farce "Jake's Troubles" were well received. There will also be 4,000 feet of new motion pictures. All for 5 and 10 cents will be worth the price of admission. Tonight a "Quiet Night's Rest" will be on the bill. This is a very laughable comedy and one which no doubt will please.

The chaplain will be appointed by the incoming conccllor.

RESERVED HIS DECISION.

As was stated yesterday a case to test the law fixing the weight of leaves of bread offered for sale in this city was heard by Justice Caton in the Police Court yesterday afternoon. The matter was brought up by Henry Schlichting, a baker who made a number of loaves of varying weights, some labeled, some unlabeled, and offered them for sale in the city market. They were seized by the marketmaster, and the test case resulted. Corporation Attorney S. P. Fisher appeared for the city, and Judge J. K. M. Norton represented Schlichting. After hearing arguments, Justice Caton announced that he would reserve his decision.

Mr. John T. Nalls is making arrangements for the erection of a store and apartment house on the south side of King street, near Alfred.

APPEAL FOR CHARITY.

Four months ago a man was killed at Four Mile Run while working for the electric railway company, leaving a wife and six children; another since has been born. The family is entirely destitute, and expecting eviction from the house every day. Any assistance will be gratefully accepted by Mr. Williamson, of New Alexandria.

WASHOUT.

There was a serious washout at Tye river, on the Southern Railway, yesterday, and north bound trains had to use the Chesapeake and Ohio tracks for a considerable distance. Trains were many hours late in their arrival at this city.

No Clue to Leon Ling.

New York, June 29.—The trained and expert sleuths of this city, aided by the detectives of every city in the United States, practically admit today, that they have proved no match for the elusive Oriental, and that Leon Ling, the supposed murderer of Elsie Sigel, has slipped between the meshes of their nets and passed beyond their reach.

It is conceded that there is practically no hope now of apprehending the Celestial, in whose room the granddaughter of General Sigel was strangled to death.
